13	MT. HEALTHY INSPECTION	7:30

A delicious hot roast beef sandwiches, mashed potatoes & gravy prepared by Pat Kiefel and many assorted appetizers & desserts furnished by Past Matrons was enjoyed by 29 before our stated meeting.

Chapter opened in long form and WM Peggy welcomed everyone with a Christmas poem entitled "Christmas Love".

Recognitions were given to our own Grand Marshal, Peggy Furr. One honored Mason; Officer of the District Association & Out of State Registration (Jacqui Umbach). Our Grand Pages & Grand Aides; Libbey Macke (Grand Page to WGM), Jacqui Umbach (Grand Page to Grand Marshal); Don Huber (Grand Aide to DGM); David Holmes (Grand Aide to WGM).

Sunshine collection was taken and designated to purchase a gift card for our Mt. Healthy Sharing Tree needy family we are helping this Christmas season. Minutes of previous meeting were read; treasurers report was filed for audit and bills ordered to be paid. Committee reports were given by all chairpersons.

Tonight was re-obligation night and while our Worthy Patron Danny was East of the Altar, all present repeated the obligation. Our AC Melissa explained a legally prepared ballot box and gave her lecture the candidates receive before entering our Chapter room. Conductress Dori read the Landmarks.

Announcements of upcoming events were given. Our December birthdays: Ruth Allen, Lucille Knippenberg, Melissa Holmes & Don Huber were recognized and serenaded with "Happy Birthday".

Thank you to our proteems, our refreshment committee and to Cindy Lasondzyk for her beautiful music this evening.

With Worthy Matron's theme "We Are Blessed" our Chaplain Libbey Macke remembered our soldiers with a stunning tribute "A Soldiers Christmas".

After chapter closed, names were drawn to receive the potted poinsettias that decorated our dining room tables, gifts from our Worthy Matron. Lucky ones were Carolyn Push, Drusilla Giles, Betty Buck-Blount, Ruth Allen & Melissa Holmes.
